

Welcome to 104 ARROWHEAD COURT, LOUISBURG, NC

We have truly loved our home and have enjoyed all that it has to offer. It is a beautiful, well-built home with a thoughtful layout that provides both comfort and functionality. One of our favorite features is the split-bedroom floor plan, with a wonderful Jack-and-Jill layout on one side of the home that is perfect for children, while the spacious primary suite is privately situated on the opposite side.

The open-concept living area makes this home ideal for entertaining family and friends, with plenty of space for everyone to gather and enjoy time together. We have especially loved the fenced-in backyard, which has provided a safe and enjoyable space for our pets.

The home is located in a very quiet neighborhood where neighbors genuinely look out for one another. Situated on a private cul-de-sac within West Riverbend Estates, the home offers a peaceful atmosphere with very little traffic, making it a wonderful place to call home.

We are only selling because our family is moving to another county. If we were not making this move, we would happily remain in this home. We sincerely hope the next owners will love and enjoy this home and neighborhood as much as our family has.

The Bakers